Censur av hatspråk ett krigsvapen i det pågående #5GUW

( Censoring hate speech a weapon of war in the currently ongoing #5GUW )

4 februari 2006, <http://blog.lege.net/verklighetsbubblan/#undermedvetet> :

Undermedvetet bortval

Dr. Lobaczewski lär oss i sin bok om hur ett samhälle vänder rationaliteten ryggen - "Politisk Ponerologi" - att när vanan att göra undermedvetna urval och utbyten av tankedata har spridit sig till den makrosociala nivån så utvecklar samhället ifråga ett förakt för kritik byggd på fakta och förnedrar envar som slår larm. Förakt visas även gentemot andra nationer som har behållit ett normalt rationellt tankesätt, liksom för deras åsikter. Egoistisk tanketerrorism genereras av samhället självt och dess processer av "omvandlingstänkande". Jag har själv sett massor av exempel på detta i min egen epost inbox. Detta onödiggör i detta steg av processen behov av censur i media, teater, etc, då patologiskt hyperkänsliga censorer bor inom medborgarna själva. Jag var själv fram till för några år sedan på detta sätt min egen censor. När allt centreras kring självets behov i samhället så försvagas sociala band och ansvar och samhället bryts till sist upp i sinsemellan alltmer fientliga grupper. När en hysterisk omgivning till sist slutar att göra åtskillnad på åsikter från begränsade, inte helt normala människor, och åsikter från normalt rationella personer så öppnar detta slussportarna för aktivering av patologiska faktorer av olika slag. Om ett samhälle inte lyckas att övervinna det hysteriska tillståndet så kan en stor blodig tragedi bli resultatet. En variant på en sådan tragedi är att en så kallad patokrati skapas. Det är min tro att en sådan patokrati styr en stor del av världen i dag - säkert USA men troligen flera europeiska länder också. ("Political Ponerology: A science on the nature of evil adjusted for political purposes", Andrew M. Lobaczewski, Ph.D. (psychology).)

The below text is on how the capturing of the minds was done from 1965 in China, since infiltrated & executed from inside the institutions of the west, many of which that have by now been made into weapons of war against We The People. When these organizations block "hate speech" and the like, they are actually blocking speech that may break through the continued infiltration and complete overtake of the west. I.e., censoring "hate speech" is a weapon of war in the currently ongoing 5:th Generation (global) Unrestricted War #5GUW. Just like in China, the most controlled have very fragile minds, hence the "safe spaces", etc..

The new definition of democracy: What the consensus building architecture within the democratic institutions themselves have worked to agree within themselves on, while censoring those who threaten their rule.

"Democracy is getting the NGOs to agree with Blackrock, to agree with the Wall Street Journal, you know, to agree with, you know, the community and activist groups who are onboarded with respect to a particular initiative." <https://t.me/realLegeNet/64194>

The whole interview this is from with Mike Benz, executive director of Foundation for Freedom Online, and Tucker Carlson, Ep. 75, <https://t.me/realLegeNet/64191>

Not related but I wish to share an insight that I just had:

The difference between Lawfare and Law is that Lawfare use the rules to force a ruling while Law use comprehension to create a resolution that all reasonable people can see is Just.

Free speech is the bedrock of democracy.

That's why it's the FIRST Amendment.

Without free speech, all is lost.

When I revealed my name to the public, Media Matters called all my old employers, tried to dig up as much dirt on me as possible, and tried to ruin my life with hit pieces.

Now they are getting fired, and I have more influence than the entire company.

Trump secured some serious votes with his promises for crypto.

Tens of millions of Americans own crypto, and the hardcore supporters are EXTREMELY passionate about it.

Many crypto bros will vote for whomever they think will maximize the value/security of their assets.

Come November, the majority of Libertarians will be voting Trump.

The LP just scared off the Right-leaning/sane Libertarians. Chase Oliver won't eclipse 1%. The other 2% will likely vote Trump.

The biggest winner of the Libertarian convention is Trump, and it's not even close.

The Biden regime are in a lose-lose situation.

Trump has already won the court of public opinion. Even if they convict him, it will have an inverse effect and increase his support.

Meanwhile, the public are being normalized to accept imprisoning high-profile politicians. &#128520;

Precedent established.

It's hilarious how anti-Trumpers have convinced themselves that Trump is part of the Swamp.

The same people who initially claimed the Swamp did not exist, are now experts on how to drain it.

Meanwhile, the Swamp spent the last 8 years dedicating all assets to stopping Trump. If the Swamp did not view Trump as a threat, they would not be dedicating this much effort and ammunition to obstructing the MAGA agenda. If Trump was on their team, they would not have gone through this 8 years of irregular political/informational warfare.

The Deep State's greatest strength was that the public didn't know they existed. This battle with Trump has exposed their existence. Prior to Trump, they had 99% of the public under their spell. Now they do not. The public are exponentially more awake, thanks to Trump.

No matter how you slice it, Trump is not one of "them". He is on a mission to expose them, which is why they attack him more than they attack anyone else.

This insane lawfare from the Biden regime is opening Pandora's Box.

Theoretically, if the upcoming Trump administration were to prosecute high-profile politicians and corrupt bureaucrats, the Deep State/MSM won't be able to cry "political weaponization".

The gloves are off now.
